Jos Sevriens trained for 11 years with Piet Oothout, trainer of Henk Van Bergen (the Coach for the Dutch team in 1988 that won the Team Silver medal in the Barcelona Olympics), Anky van Grunsven, and other notable Dutch riders. Jos also trained for 8 years with Ernst van Loon who won the Dutch eventing title five times, and was on the Dutch Olympic team.

Jos competed in three FEI disciplines, including dressage, through Grand Prix. He trained the Belgium eventing team from 1979 till 1984 and took several young riders to the national champion ships.

Since 1985 Jos has trained riders in all three disciplines in the US, Central America and Europe, and competed from 1971 till 1999 in FEI national shows riding sale horses for clients. Jos is also a notable USEF breeding judge and judges for the KWPN/NA, AHHA and NAS. His current horses compete in National dressage and jumper shows.

Today Jos is located in Newnan, Georgia where he shares his wealth of knowledge with his students freely and enthusiastically.
